WDA Competition Program Eligibility:

The WDA Competition Program is for dancers who would like to further explore their passion for dance through the experience of competition, in a fun, team environment. Requires a greater time commitment, excellent dance class attendance, appropriate level competency & a positive attitude. Dancers will compete in 1-5 routines and also perform at family events. WDA Competition Dancers must have concurrent enrollment in a Ballet only class in addition to their Competition classes. Additional technique classes may be required based on level assessment. Please see your instructor if you are interested in joining the competition program.

2013 Competition Date:

- Showstopper Competition in Anaheim: May 24th-27th, 2013
- More dates may be added throughout the year.

Due Dates For Showstopper Fees- February 1st, 2013

Estimated Competition Fees (per routine/competition) $48 For Group Routines, $45-$65 For Duets and Trios, $100 For Solos

In order to be allowed to perform, all dancers must have full attendance in the 4 classes before a scheduled performance or competition, attend all scheduled rehearsal dates and tuition account and any studio fees must be up-to-date.
